Final Questions Posted: Web-based Training Tools Forum Discussion

The last two questions have been added to the forum on Web-based Training Tools! Please share your knowledge of virtual training tools, course management software, and learning suites through the FDLP Community site. As new thoughts are shared, keep in mind there is still time to respond to any previous question posted to the current thread for "Training-relate Software Applications/Tools ". Reply and create new threads based on your experience, expertise, and ideas. Discussion will run through the first week of July and GPO welcomes your participation. We look forward to your feedback.
